BELIEVES HE COULD WININ A FOOT RACE.

Woodward Says He Is just Brimful of New Life And Energy Since Taking Tanlac.

"I feel just like getting out here now and outrunning any man in this town," was the characteristic statement made by J. B. Woodward, a well known citizen of Lexington, Ky., in telling his friends of the remarkable benefits he had derived from Tanlac.

"Yes, sir, it's a fact," he continued. "I have only used Tanlac for about two weeks now and I am like a new man. I feel like a new man. I feel just brimful of new life and energy, and my family and all of my friends can see the difference in my condition.

"Before I began taking Tanlac I could not raise my left hand to my head and it had been that way for fully two years. I suffered from stomach trouble, rheumatism and neuralgia, and no other medicine seemed to do me a particle of good. It certainly was a great day for me when I ed "platform guests" in Tennesheard of Tanlac and I take great | see. pleasure in recommending it."

The above statement appeared in a recent issue of the Lexington Leaders and is only one of many thousands of similar statements that have been given by grateful users of Tanlac in all parts of the country from Mexico to Maine. Tanlac is now on sale in practically everycity, town and village throughout the entire United States, and is selling at the phenomenal rate of five million bottles per year.

BRITISH FAILURE.

To the Editor of the Banner:

The Banner's editorial, issue May 1, setting forth features of British failure and inefficiency displayed in the present war, calls for some justification. One of the most startling assertions in defense is that the long "reign of terrow" by the militant suffragists has intimidated England and has produced "a softening of the brain" of her statesmen and made weaklings of her men.

We have read (in the Century) Edna Kenton's paper. "The Militant Woman-and Women,' in which she writes: "Votes for women, office for women, economic independence for women, war for women, bombs and fire. hammers and stones, rioting and hunger striking, and at last sexfreedom and sex-war for women' -could but tremble for the results of this mad-militancy in the ranks of Saxon soldiery. "Prussian militarism" is certainly a choice between two evils.

If "militancy is the discharging ulcer of the insidious disease of femininism"-shame? that, "for cause," its high priestess, Mrs. Pankhurst, who once declared, "At last women have learned the joy of war!"-shame! she should be accorded honor by distinguish-

Miss Agnes Repplier asked recently: "Who made the Pankhursts our nursery governesses and put us in their hands for schooling?" So we ask: "Why must Tennessee go to these ultra advanced women for enlightenment ?" Their statements are of no importance only as they reveal that there must be some ground for the assertion made nowadays that "there is no difference between woman suffrage, socialism and the present fominist movement." All sane persons must regret that we sent 20,000 good American dollars to England by Mrs. Pankhurst in former "mildeyed" (?) campaign in the United States to equip her for damage done to persons and

Those who contributed to her canse then are now getting an ample money's worth of British inefficiency.

Great asylums have many apparently quiet, "mild-eyed" (?) patients, who, when aroused, are the most hysterical and uncontrolably insane of the species.

American women need no vulgarizing of chief ethical virtues to inspire men to deeds of valor, as did her brave women in civil and revolutionary war days.

Some of us, personally, resent an English militant to attempt to strip our women of "the honor of a dignified past," and rob us of the very essence of our womanhood with "the part woman has played in" England of late, which has been one serious pathological fact of British failure today.

PURE BRED CAT-TIE AND SILOS

Use Becoming General In N .C. & St. L. Territory Free Literature on Subject.

The Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Railway has in reyears been instrumental in the distribution of approximately five thousand blooded breeding animals in the agricultural localities reached by its lines. Such distribution has been effected through public sales directed by local live stock associations, cooperating with the several national breeders associations. It is desired primarily, in addition to inducing an intelligent breeder here and there to establish pure bred herds to supply the rapidly growing Southern demand for registered cattle, to encourage the general use of pure bred sires on grade herds, thus improving and increasing the quality and quanity of beef, pork and mutton produced for the general market. Recognizing the essential value of the silo in feeding live stock in the South, the Industrial, Agricultural and Immigration Division of the Traffic Department of the road, has published a comprehensive booklet on Silos and Silage which has been gire i wide distribution along the company's lines. The publication is still available without cost, and will be mailed to any address upon application to L. P. Bellah, General Agent, Nashville Tenn. In fact the company solicits requests from its agricultural patrons for this and other instructive literature.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky .- In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

After Four Years of Discouraging I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardul for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him.
